1. The Arms Export Control Act, Title 22, United States Code, Section 2778 (“AECA” or the “Act”) authorized the President to control the export of defense articles and defense services from the United States. Unless a specific exception applies, the Act provided that no defense articles or defense services may be exported without a license for such export. 22 U.S.C. § 2778(b). The regulations promulgated pursuant to the Act were the International Traffic in Arms Regulations (“ITAR”), Title 22, Code of Federal Regulations, Sections 120 through 130. The United States Department of State, Directorate of Defense Trade Controls (the “DDTC”) administered the ITAR and regulated the export of defense articles. Section 2778(c) of the AECA established criminal penalties for any willful violation of Section 2778 or any rule or regulation thereunder. Under Section 123.1 of the ITAR, any person who intended to export a defense article had to obtain the approval of the DDTC before such export occurred. Pursuant to the ITAR, exporting, or attempting to export, a defense article from the United States without a license or written approval from the DDTC was unlawful. 22 C.F.R. § 127.1(a)(1). The ITAR defined exporting to include, among other things: “[s]ending or taking a defense article out of the United States in any manner” 22 C.F.R. § 120.17.

2. The ITAR defined a defense article to be any item on the United States Munitions List (“USML”) contained in the regulations. The USML set forth twenty-one categories of defense articles that are subject to export licensing controls by the United States Department of State’s Directorate of Defense Trade Controls (“DDTC”). 22 C.F.R. § 121.1.

3. The following items were defense articles designated on the USML in Category I(g), which could not and cannot be exported from the United States without a license or written approval from the DDTC:

- a. JNC M2HB .50 caliber rifles
- b. Barrett .50 caliber rifles
- c. Century Arms VSKA 7.62 caliber rifles

4. It was also unlawful for a person to violate United States smuggling laws. Title 18, United States Code, Section 554(a) made it a federal crime to fraudulently or knowingly export or send from the United States, or attempt to export or send from the United States, any merchandise, article, or object contrary to any law or regulation of the United States, or receive, conceal, buy, sell, or in any manner facilitate the transportation, concealment, or sale of such merchandise, article or object, prior to exportation, knowing the same to be intended for exportation contrary to any law or regulation of the United States.

5. Neither VICTOR RICARDO CAMACHO, ISAAC RODRIGUEZ nor any co-conspirator identified herein ever applied for, received, or possessed a license from the DDTC to export defense articles.
